

Getting started with Alumnifire

#1 To get started with Alumnifire, go to www.alumnifire.com and sign up. If you sign up using Facebook or LinkedIn, Alumnifire will pre-populate your profile.

The screenshot shows the Alumnifire website interface. At the top left, the logo "ALUMNIFIRE" is displayed in white on a dark grey background, followed by a home icon and the text "About us". At the top right, there are links for "Sign in" and "I work here". The main content area features a large photograph of Sweet Briar College's campus, showing a large building with a dome and a portico, surrounded by green lawns and trees with pink blossoms in the foreground. To the right of the image, a green panel contains the following text: "Welcome to Sweet Briar's Alumnifire." followed by "Alumnae launched this community in January of 2015." Below this text are three sign-up buttons: "Sign up with LinkedIn" (blue), "Sign up with Facebook" (purple), and "Sign up with Email" (white with a green border). At the bottom of the green panel, a small line of text reads: "By signing up, you agree to our terms of service and privacy policy."

#4 Post a message asking for help.

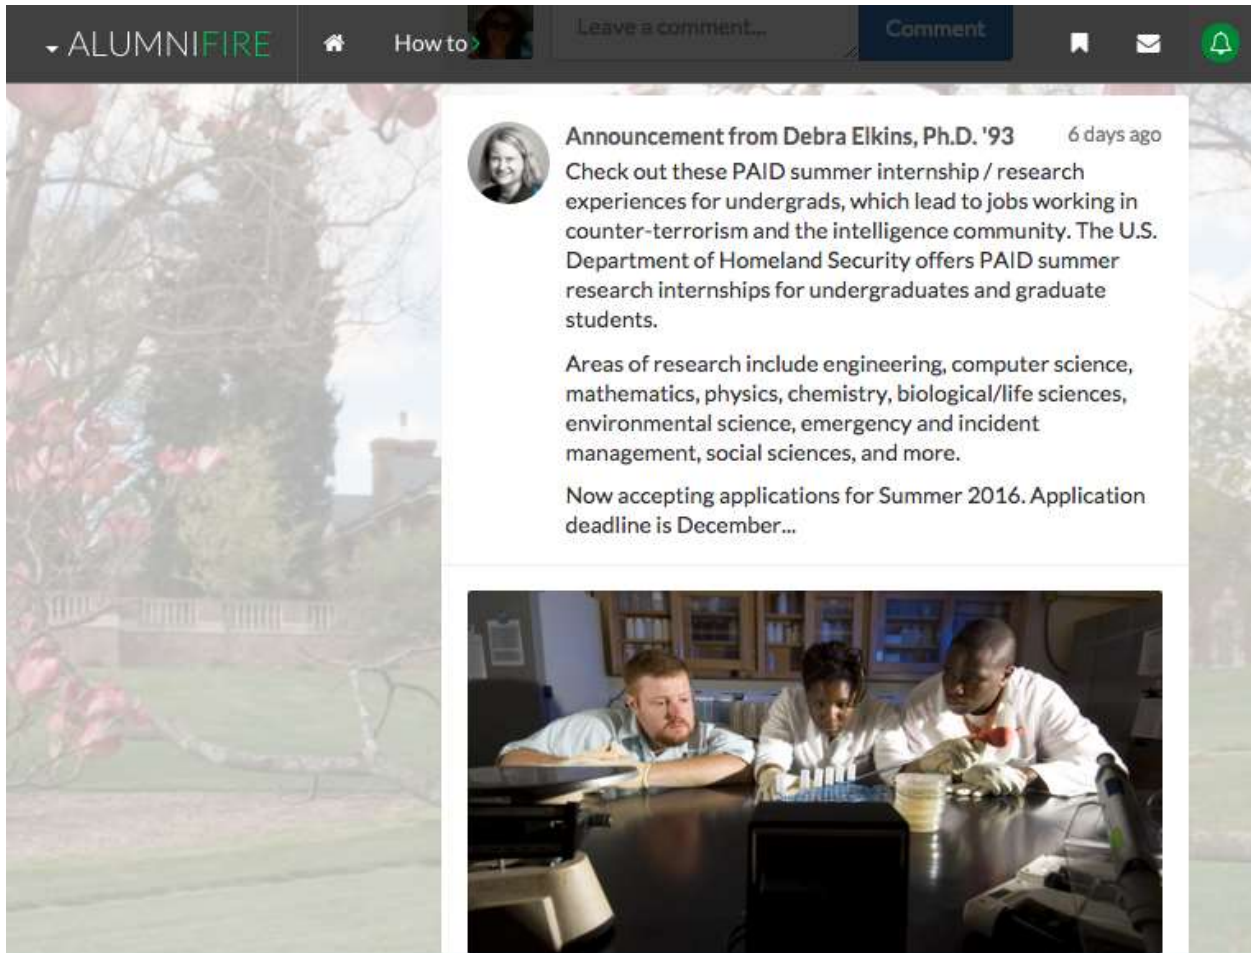

In this example, a student posts a message asking for help.

The screenshot shows the ALUMNIFIRE website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ALUMNIFIRE logo, a home icon, and a "How to" dropdown menu. On the right side of the navigation bar, there are icons for a bookmark, email, and notifications, along with the user's name "Margaretta Colangelo" and a dropdown arrow. Below the navigation bar, the main content area is divided into three sections. The left section is a user profile for Margaretta Colangelo '87, featuring a circular profile picture and two buttons: "Search Vixens" and "Post a job". The middle section is an announcement from Nene Jones '16, dated "about 1 month ago". The announcement text reads: "Hello! My name is Nene Jones and I am a current senior here at Sweet Briar College. I will be graduating in May, and am looking for a job. I am a psychology and sociology major and have worked in event planning and athletics for years now. I would love to utilize my psychology degree and gain experience that will make me stand out on my grad school application. Please email me at sjones16@sbc.edu if you know of any job offers. location is not to big of a concern but I would love to work in NC,SC, DC, or Northern VA. Thank you!". The right section features the Sweet Briar College logo, which is a circular crest with the text "SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE 1907" and "ROMAN TRAIL" and "SWEET BRIAR" below it.

Three alumnae respond to her message and offer help.

The screenshot shows the ALUMNIFIRE website interface with three responses to Nene Jones '16's message. On the left side, there is a sidebar with two sections: "I offer" and "About". The "I offer" section has an "Edit" button and four items: "Using social media effectively", "General career advice", "Entrepreneurship", and "Advice for Startups". The "About" section also has an "Edit" button and six items: "BA, 1987", "Lives in San Francisco Bay, US", "From San Francisco, CA", "Works at U1 Technologies", "Works in Computer Software", "Member of Study abroad in Italy", and "Member of Chung Mung". The main content area shows three responses. The first response is from Dj Stanhope '81, dated "about 1 month ago". The response text reads: "Nene, have you considered an internship with USO? I have very good connections with the USO of North Carolina. Check the link and see if there's something of interest there to you. <http://uso-nc.org/about-uso-nc/careers/internship-opportunities/>". The second response is from Debra Elkins, Ph.D. '93, dated "29 days ago". The response text reads: "Nene -- let me know if you want to take a look at all sorts of jobs in Federal Govt in psych / sociology. The main job search and application portal for the Executive Branch is www.USAJobs.gov. You may also want to look into psych / sociology which is hot for intelligence community work (www.intelligence.gov) -- classified work, but global and multi-ethnic perspectives. Neat stuff! Shoot me a text or email if you want to catch up!". The third response is from Marion F. Walker '72, dated "1 day ago". The response text reads: "Nene-There is a sports event management firm in Birmingham known as Bruno Sports Events Mgmt. You may want to check for an internship. If so, I know the director. Check them out <http://www.brunoeventteam.com/>". Below the responses, there is a "Follow" button and a comment section with a profile picture, a text input field containing "Leave a comment...", and a blue "Comment" button. On the right side, there is a section titled "you talk to other Sweet Briar alums?" with six social media icons: email, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Google+, and a smiley face icon.

#5 To browse announcements about opportunities offered by alumnae, Click on the discussions button at the top of the page.

The screenshot shows a social media interface for ALUMNIFIRE. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the ALUMNIFIRE logo, a home icon, a 'How to' link, a search bar containing 'Leave a comment...', a 'Comment' button, and icons for bookmarking, messaging, and notifications. The main content area features a post from Debra Elkins, Ph.D. '93, dated 6 days ago. The post text reads: 'Check out these PAID summer internship / research experiences for undergrads, which lead to jobs working in counter-terrorism and the intelligence community. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security offers PAID summer research internships for undergraduates and graduate students. Areas of research include engineering, computer science, mathematics, physics, chemistry, biological/life sciences, environmental science, emergency and incident management, social sciences, and more. Now accepting applications for Summer 2016. Application deadline is December...'. I have an aggressive sales and marketing plan to execute for a start up wholesale distribution company in the gift and home decor industry. In search of highly motivated and seasoned, independent sales people. Where is best place to post? Is there a page for job opportunities (within the SBC alum network)? Would love advice, referrals, information, and insight. Will be happy to share more details regarding company, product and marketing plans.
